What's Going On

The Daily What? The Practice of Ordered Prayer

'How do Anglicans pray?' 'How often should we pray?' 'What if I don't like to pray out loud?' 'But I can't focus my mind to pray!' 'How do I distinguish God's voice from my own?' All questions even the most 'spiritually mature' are afraid to ask. However, let's take after Christ's disciples who ask him to 'Teach us to pray', not 'how' to pray (Luke 11:1). Father Zosima in Dostoevsky's novel The Brothers Karamazov says "Prayer is an education."

We invite you to learn the Anglican way of prayer but our greater hope and desire is for this series to enrich your life with God and each other as you learn to pray after the pattern of our Church since its beginning: The Daily What? The Anglican Practice of Ordered Prayer.

Beginning the week of Sunday of Feb. 17th, you can come either to the Sunday evening slot of 4:00-6:00 p.m., or to the Monday evening slot of 7:00-9:00 p.m., to come learn about the Daily Office, which is the historic Anglican practice of ordered prayer. It will take place in the side chapel of the main sanctuary, no cost, but paper, pens, and readiness to pray are recommended! Together we will learn all the details of the Anglican practice of Ordered Prayer, the Daily Office but most important we will learn to pray, from this great treasure of our Anglican heritage.

Stonegate Thanks ASK for Generous Donations

Happily, 145 families (up from 126 last year), totaling 425 people, 39% who are children, received $7,030.00 in grocery store food vouchers distributed to Stonegate and Lakeshore residents, through the foodbank at Christ Church St. James Anglican Church. Our congregation contributed generously to this worthwhile project which helps needy families at Christmas.

- With thanks, Helen Skippon.

75th Anniversary Gala Silent Auction

On March 1 we will be having our Gala at Islington Golf Club. As part of the evening we would like to have a Silent Auction to raise funds for ASK. If you have something special you would like to donate (time at a cottage or chalet, sporting event tickets, cooking a dinner, art or other items or services) or can ask friends or family members to donate we would really appreciate it. Brave souls can even canvas neighbourhood restaurants or services for donations. We already have a few wonderful items and we need more in order to make this a fabulous silent auction!!

Can we count on you?? Please bring any items to the office and label who they are from, include a good description of the item, and estimated value. Any questions please contact Mary Anne Huggins at:

wardenmaryanne@allsaintskingsway.ca

Seniors Lunch

Our next lunch will take place on Thursday, February 21st. We will be welcoming Reverend Brian Suggs, our newly ordained assistant curate, who will talk about what brought him into the ministry and to All Saints' Kingsway. As usual, we will begin with the 10:30 a.m. Eucharist and will continue with the presentation and lunch in the Wilkinson Room. If you would like to be added to our contact list or require transportation, please call Myrna Teskey at 416-236-8252.

Joyful Giving Update

Thank you to all who have returned ASK Intention Cards for 2019. So far we have received 77 commitments representing approximately half of our identifiable givers. We have met our goal for the growth in PAR givers and PAR giving with increases of approximately 10%. Factoring in envelope pledges, our overall increase in giving is 3.9% - halfway to our goal of 8%. Can you help us?

Intention cards and PAR registration forms are available on the website, in the office, and in the Narthex.

Important Notice about "The Anglican Journal"

If you receive The Anglican Journal and the diocesan Anglican by mail, and wish to continue to do so, you must confirm your subscription. It seems that a significant percentage of mailings are returned each month as "unknown at this address", representing thousands of dollars in wasted postage. Subscriptions not confirmed will be cancelled effective with the June 2019 issue.

To confirm by email: Send your name, full mailing address and the ID # from the mailing label if available, to: yes@national.anglican.ca

Or mail the same information to: Anglican Journal, 80 Hayden St., Toronto M4Y3G2

Architects Wanted

Mohamad, the husband/father of the family seeking refuge in Canada that ASK is sponsoring, is an architect from Syria. He would like to meet with architects here so that he could learn what is required to become an architect in Ontario. If you know an architect who would be willing to talk with Mohamad (Mohamad is fully fluent in English) for half an hour, please forward that contact to David Curtis at david.curtis@rogers.com or (416) 233-4363.

Knitting, Crocheting Group Meets March 3

The ASK Prayer Shawl Ministry Team is a group of knitters and crocheters who enjoy making shawls, scarves, and lap blankets for those who could use a reminder of how much they are cared for by their community at All Saints.

We also enjoy time together knitting or crocheting, and have our next meeting in the Wilkinson Room on Sunday, March 3 after the Celebration. If you're interested in what we do, or if you're interested in learning how to knit or crochet, please drop in that day and visit. Everyone's welcome!

WTF?!

What The Faith?! @ ASK is a journey of discipleship with friends of which the first 8-week session began Thursday, Jan. 10. There are two options to attend: Thursdays at 12-1 p.m. (bring a bagged lunch) or; Thursdays at 7-8:30 p.m. (children/youth programs and nursery available).

Join us for a journey of discipleship as we dig deeper into the scriptures and the nature of the Christian life. We are helped on our journey by author Rowan Williams, past Archbishop of Canterbury, with his wonderful small books, Being Christian: Baptism, Bible, Eucharist, Prayer and Being Disciples: Essentials of the Christian Life. Copies are available at the office ($15 each).

Following this, in Lent we will be exploring the nature of gratitude in the Bible. Please register with the office.

Thursdays from Jan. 10th - Feb. 28th: Being Christian/Being Disciples with Rowan Williams.

Thursdays in Lent from Mar. 7th - Apr. 11th: Lift Up Your Hearts: A Biblical Theology of Gratitude in the Scriptures.

Invitation to meet the Saoud family

The family seeking refuge in Canada that we are sponsoring is settling in very well. They were housed in a hotel following their arrival on December 20, 2018 until we took possession of their apartment on January 1, 2019. They moved in that day since we were given access to the apartment to move in furniture a few days before that. They are very happy with their apartment and have been acquainting themselves with their new neighbourhood. They say that they would like to meet their All Saints family. Sunday, February 17, 2019 at the 10 a.m. service has been selected as the time when they will come. Please come and help provide a warm welcome to Canada to the family!
