The Generous God: Nurturing an Attitude of Gratitude

The Daily What? The Practice of Ordered Prayer

'How do Anglicans pray?' Father Zosima in Dostoevsky's novel The Brothers Karamazov says "Prayer is an education."

We invite you to learn the Anglican way of prayer but our greater hope and desire is for this series to enrich your life with God and each other, as you learn to pray after the pattern of our Church since its beginning: The Daily What? The Anglican Practice of Ordered Prayer.

Beginning the week of Sunday of Feb. 17th continuing through the week of Sunday April 8th you can come either to the Sunday evening slot of 4:00-6:00pm, or to the Monday evening slot of 7:00-9:00pm You will learn about the Daily Office, which is the historic Anglican practice of ordered prayer. It will take place in the side chapel of the main sanctuary, and it will be led by the new student intern Caleb Upton! No cost, but paper, pens, and readiness to pray are recommended!

How do We Thank You?

With heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for whatever part played or contribution offered by you - the parishioners and our friends of All Saints - making it a very successful 75th Anniversary Gala.

Please know that in celebrating 75 years of ministry here at All Saints we have experienced what we already knew; that your love, generosity and support for this church, this community and for each other is boundless. We also know you enjoy a good time!

What we didn't know was that we could raise over $11,000 in one evening. Congratulations!

Overheard at checkout, by the purchaser of principal dancer Heather Ogden's signed pointe shoes, Grandpa (a guest) was sending them off to Newfoundland for his granddaughter. He was thrilled as his own daughter had been a school chum of Heather's, reflecting the serendipity of the evening.

Blessings,
Joan & Joanne

Each week this year as part of our 75th Anniversary celebrations, WGO features a snippet of information about our church.

ASK snippets

Although the church was built by contractors, some of the finishing work was done by parishioners. They painted the basement, covered the kneelers and did the dusting and polishing required to prepare the church for the opening of each stage: first the basement, then the nave and finally the whole building.

ASK Cares

Our Ask Cares ministry is a team of dedicated volunteers who reach out with generosity and loving service to meet the needs of our parishioners who are facing challenging times.

Since July 2018, we have prepared meals for our grateful families every week. Currently, we are preparing and delivering a meal every Thursday for our family.

We do need more volunteers who'd love to prepare a meal and connect with our parishioners! This is a fulfilling ministry where your presence lifts their spirits, restores their hope, and supports their journey of faith.

ASK CARES is a wonderful ministry where your loving hearts in action are truly a blessing to others and to God. Please give ASK CARES your prayerful consideration. We'd love to have you join us!
